What to Bring.....

- Sunglasses
- Clothes
- Money
- Camera
- Navigator
- Friends
- Car
- Laptop
- Ipod
- Research
- Happiness
- Plans For Visiting

Massachusetts

By: Sang Lee

Special Place: Harvard University

Location: Cambridge

A description of Harvard would be that it is very old fashioned. It is also very big.

What you would do there is if you get to go to the university you would be studying and learning like a university.

The university was established in 1636. Eight presidents; John Adams, John Quincy Adams, Theodore Roosevelt, Franklin Roosevelt, Rutherford Hayes, John F. Kennedy, George W. Bush, and Barrack Obama were graduates of Harvard. Harvard is 1st in University rankings.

Source of Information

http://en.wikipedia.org

Special Place: Public Garden

Location: Boston

A description of Public Garden is that the botanical garden has hundreds of trees in 74 different species. Ever spring Thousands of tulips colorfully bloom. There is a lake in the garden too.

What to do in the botanical garden is to watch the lake and see the animals consisting of swans, ducks, and etc. There is a pedal-powered swan boat to see all of the lake and garden.

Public Garden was established in 1837 when philanthropist Horace Gray petitioned for the use of the land as the first botanical garden in the U.S. It was finally declared that the Garden will be a National Historical landmark in 1987.

Special Place: Faneuil Hall

Location: Boston

A description of Faneuil Hall is that the architecture is Georgian. The exterior is very old fashioned.

What you would mainly do in the Faneuil Hall is that you would give a speech or watch a speech given by someone. You might also have a meeting.

The original Faneuil Hall was built by artist John Smibert in 1742. Faneuil Hall was funded by a wealthy Boston merchant named Peter Faneuil.

Samuel Adams made a speech there impassioning for freedom.

